Dear Mrs Weiher,

HARPUR-CREWE SETTLED ESTATES

Thank you for your letter of the 26th November and for the copy of Caroline L Turner's death certificate and also her photograph. I would have said myself that she looked a very determined lady - I suspect the photograph was taken in India and I suspect that in those days photography there was even less advanced than it was in Europe and it was necessary for her to hold a pose for a considerable time.

To turn now to the entail, the estates ^{were} re-settled by Sir John's Will and Sir Vauncey's marriage settlement between 1876 and 1886. The terms of this settlement were Sir Vauncey for life and the succeeding entail was his eldest son and his eldest son and so on and if any line came to an end the second son and any further sons and their respective descendants and if at any generation there were no sons (or none left) then the eldest daughter and her eldest son and so on and then the second and third etc daughters - so that once the estate descended a generation it could not go up a generation again unless there had been a total failure of that and succeeding generations and the rule was in this

IN 1938 HILDA MOSLEY, ON TAKING LEGAL ADVICE, BYPASSED HER THREE YOUNGER SISTERS AND LEFT THE ESTATE TO HER NEPHEW CHARLES JENNEY, SO THAT ON HIS DEATH IT WOULD PASS TO HIS ELDEST SON, OR IN THE ABSENCE OF SONS, TO HIS ELDEST DAUGHTER.

IF THERE WERE NO CHILDREN THEN TO HIS BROTHER HENRY JENNEY ON THE SAME BASIS, AND IF HE LEFT NO CHILDREN THEN TO THEIR SISTER AIRMYNE ON THE SAME BASIS, CHANGING THEIR NAMES FROM JENNEY TO HARPUR-CREWE

FROM HILDA MOSLEY'S WILL

MRS MOSLEY CLEARLY ANTICIPATED THE POSSIBILITY THAT HER NEPHEWS AND NIECE WOULD HAVE NO CHILDREN AND THEREFORE SPECIFIED IN HER WILL THAT IN THAT EVENTUALITY THE ESTATE SHOULD PASS TO HER NEAREST CREWE RELATIVE.

MRS MOSLEY DIED IN 1949, AND LEGALLY CHILDREN MEANT ONLY LEGITIMATE CHILDREN, SO IT WAS ESSENTIAL THAT THE HEIR TO THE ESTATE BE LEGITIMATE

THE MARRIAGE OF CAROLINE LOUISA HARPUR CREWE TO LIEUTENANT ION TURNER

MARRIAGE OF MISS LOUISA HARPUR CREWE.

(From a Correspondent.)

The wedding of Miss Louisa Harpur Crewe, only daughter of Edmund L. Crewe, Esq., of Repton Park, to Ion Turner, Esq., Lieutenant in the 16th Lancers, only son of Dr. and Mrs. Turner, of Kensington, took place at Repton on Thursday last. This auspicious event was ushered in by brilliant weather, and a large concourse of visitors were present. The hospitalities and festivities continued for three days. In addition to the splendid déjeuner at the Hall, tents were erected in the pleasure grounds for the tenantry of the estate, tradespeople, and numerous attendants. A little before 12 o'clock the bridal party issued from the porch adjoining the tower on which the union jack was hoisted. The whole distance to the church was decorated with garlands and flags. On arriving at the church they passed through the assembled children of the schools, each holding a bouquet which on the return of the bride and bridegroom were strewed at their feet. The service was read in a very impressive manner by the Rev. H. Harpur Crewe, rector of Drayton Beauchamp, Bucks., cousin of the bride. The attractions of the bride and bridegroom and the elegance of the bridesmaids elicited great admiration, and the whole of the arrangements were very complete. The bridal party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Crewe, Master J. E. H. Crewe, Rev. H. H. Crewe, three Misses Crewe, Miss Wardlow, Miss Johnstone (bridesmaids), Charles Crewe, Esq., George Crewe, Esq., Edward Crewe, Esq., Dr. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. Scotshard (best man), Miss Cheslyn, Rev. John and Miss Whitaker, Miss Bailey. Amongst the numerous guests at the breakfast were Mrs. Pears, Rev. W. Williams, Dr. Perrott, Rev. J. and Mrs. Smith, Dr. Hewgill, Rev. W. and Mrs. Mousley, Mr. F. and Mrs. Barber, Rev. F. Spilsbury, Mr. Richardson, &c., &c. Sir John and Lady Crewe and other relatives of the family were unavoidably absent from the neighbourhood.

On the following day the school children and their teachers, the attendants, and the old women of the village, amounting to upwards of three hundred persons, were feasted on the lawn, the scene being one of hearty enjoyment.

In the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes on Thursday, the cause of Turner v. Turner was heard. The petitioner, Augusta Turner, prayed for a judicial separation, on the ground of the cruelty of her husband, James William Turner. The respondent pleaded a denial of the charge and condonation. He further accused the petitioner of adultery, and she denied the accusation. The petitioner is the wife of a surgeon and apothecary, who has practised for many years at Kensing-

REPTON.

MARRIAGE.—On the morning of the 8th inst. the bells of the ancient parish church of Repton rang out a merry peal to celebrate the marriage of Miss Louisa E. Turner, grand-daughter of the late Mr. Edmund L. Crewe, of Repton Park, with Col. W. H. Garton, late H.M. Indian Army. The vicar of the parish, the Rev. G. Woodyatt, officiated, and the bride, who was dressed in a very pretty travelling costume of grey, was given away by her uncle, Mr. J. E. Harpur Crewe. The people of the district, in which Miss Turner has laboured with love for many years, presented her with an electro and Wedgwood butter dish, two old servants at Repton Park with a handsome album, and other servants with inkstand, pickle fork, &c. After luncheon, which was at the house of the bride's uncle, the happy pair left for the West of England. The following is a list of the wedding presents :—Sir Vauncey and the Hon. Lady Crewe, diamond, ruby and pearl brooch ; Lady Harpur Crewe, cheque ; Miss Harpur Crewe, cheque ; Mr. Hugo Crewe, silver breakfast service ; Miss Crewe, scent bottle ; Miss Mary Crewe, gold bracelet ; Mr. G. FORMED THE HARPUR CREWE LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY.

ANDREW JOHNSON FIRST VISITED TICKNALL IN 1985, AND IN 2000, FOLLOWING THE DEATH OF AIRMYNE HARPUR-CREWE AND THE END OF THE SETTLED ESTATE, AND AFTER EXTENSIVE PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH, WAS ESTABLISHED BY THE MINISTRY OF JUSTICE AS THE RIGHTFUL SUCCESSOR.

HIS FAMILY HAD MENTIONED THEIR ENGLISH HERITAGE, AND KEPT PHOTOGRAPHS AND NEWSPAPER CUTTINGS, BUT “THOUGHT THEY WERE RELATED TO A DUCHESS”.

ANDREW SAID HOW HE ENJOYED HIS VISITS TO TICKNALL, AND THE MANY PEOPLE HE MET, HOPING THAT THE FAMILY WOULD STILL HAVE A CONNECTION 500 YEARS FROM NOW

MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY CONTINUE IN HIS TRADITION OF ANNUAL VISITS AND ARE COMMITTED TO “PROVIDING WELL MAINTAINED RESIDENTIAL RENTALS RETAINING THE CHARM OF AN ESTATE VILLAGE”.
